
Identification of Skills Shortages in Ireland : Institutions, Data and Methods

Jasmina Behan, Labour Market Economist,
Skills and Labour Market Research Unit (SLMRU)
SOLAS (Irish Further Education and Training Authority) and Expert Group on Future Skills Needs
27 November 2015

SOLAS

An tSeirbhís Oideachais Leanúnaigh agus Scileanna
Further Education and Training Authority

Outline

- Institutional framework
- National Skills Database
- Linking skills research with policy design

Identification of skill needs: institutional framework

Employment permits

An Roinn Coimirce Sóisialaí
Department of Social Protection
Helping you build a better life

JobsIreland.ie

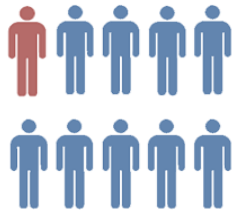

Institutional framework: Expert Group on Future Skills Needs

Institutional framework: Skills and Labour Market Research Unit

National Skills Database

National Skills Database

Linking research with policy

Replacement demand

+

Expansion demand

>
<

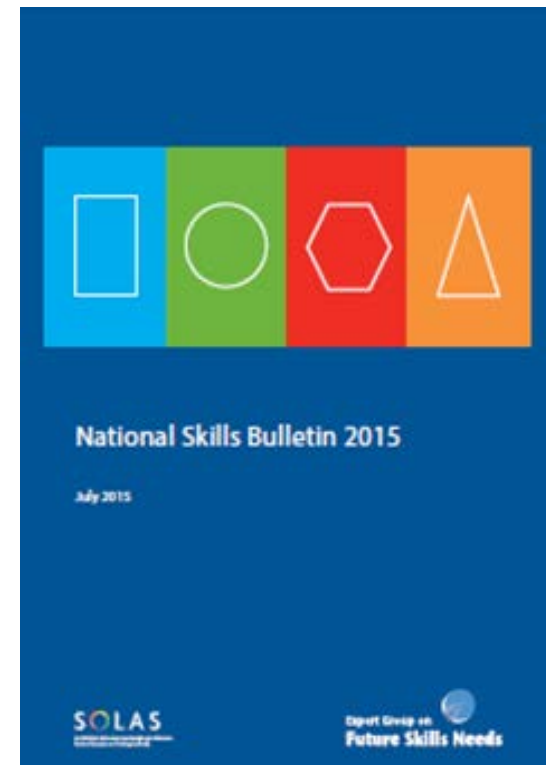

Graduate supply

+

Job seekers

Linking research with policy

Policy use

- Education and training provision (course portfolio)
- Immigration (list of eligible and ineligible occupations)
- Labour market activation
- Career guidance
- Other (e.g. North-South collaboration, FDI, regional, health)

Contact details

Jasmina Behan

Senior Research Officer,

SOLAS and Expert Group on Future Skills Needs

Tel. ++ 353 1 533 24 59

Relevant reports:

- National Skills Bulletin 2015
- Monitoring Ireland's Skills Supply 2015
- Occupational Employment Projections 2020
- Regional Labour Markets Bulletin 2015
- Vacancy Overview 2014

www.skillsireland.ie

www.solas.ie